Vivit is one place where you can find expert advice on any product or any issue and also is a great place to network. I always go to Vivit for any IT information needed. This is a place where you can get multiple ways to do one thing by getting information from experts and from peers who use those products on a regular basis. Being a Vivit member and Vivit leader helps me expand my knowledge in IT.

Andreas Birk

Vivit hosts special interest groups (SIGs) where I can meet peers and have in-depth discussions on HPE Software's products and related business topics. The personal network that has emerged from the SIG meetings is an invaluable source of expertise and support..

Bhavesh Maharaj
Johannesburg, South Africa

I became a Vivit leader to help develop my own career by improving my leadership skills, to help re-ignite the South African chapter and to meet other users of HPE products in South Africa. Being a Vivit leader to me, means being part of a global community, collaborating with Subject Matter Experts, and helping improve the customer experience of the HPE products in my geographic region by facilitating events. Some of my plans for South Africa include hosting webinars and planning an event with our local HPE office.
